13 Dawood and his friends went shopping one weekend in the local shopping centre. He bought a pair of shoes and his friends said his shoes looked amazing.

The next weekend, Dawood bought three more pairs of shoes from the shopping centre when he returned with his friends. His friends all commented again on how nice the shoes were. Over the next week, Dawood found he could not stop thinking about shoes, so he bought 15 more pairs from an online internet shop. Dawood's older brother buys a lot of shoes too and frequently swaps shoes with Dawood.

After buying 800 pairs of shoes over the next six months, Dawood is diagnosed with an addiction to shoes.

Explain one way that nurture could be used to explain Dawood's addiction to shoes.
